

Mike Puleo is a Director in our New York office where he is a member of the Reorganization Services Group (RSG). Mike has extensive experience in the areas of reorganization and restructuring, including corporate reorganization/turnarounds, business planning, liquidity management, lender and creditor negotiations, plan of reorganization development and negotiation, and liquidation planning. He has also assisted numerous companies with capital formation, corporate strategy and acquisition due diligence.

Mike has over 18 years of professional experience. He has worked with many telecom service providers in the areas of financial restructuring, strategy and viability assessment, capital formation, and operations improvement. Prior to rejoining Deloitte Consulting, Mike was President and COO of a wireless telecom company. He has also worked as financial advisor to numerous secured lenders, including Deutsche Bank, Bank of America and Chase.

Mike is a Chartered Financial Analyst and a member of the New York Society of Securities Analysts. He is also a member of the Turnaround Management Association.