

Helen Ann Ireland

40 Eastern Ave.
Manchester, NH 03104
603 625 0016
helenanni@hotmail.com

Education

1970-74 B.A. Art – University of New Hampshire
1985-87 M.Ed. Waldorf Teacher Training –
Antioch N.E., Graduate School
1990-95 Studied painting and form drawing with Van James 1994 Steiner Institute, Waterville ME
1999-2003 Graduate Studies: Students with learning differences

Experience

1990-98 Class teacher, Honolulu Waldorf School
1998-present Teacher, Pine Hill Waldorf School
2001-present College Chair, Pine Hill Waldorf School

Professional Outreach

1992-95 Guest Lecturer, University of Hawaii
Department of Education, Graduate Studies
1991, 95-97 Association of Waldorf Schools of North America
Teacher's Conference attendee

Anthroposophical Work

1992-98 Vice Chair, Hawaiian Anthroposophical Society
1992-93 Boulder Summer School, School of Spiritual Science
1995 Joined the Pedagogical Section
1995-97 Implemented meditation retreats for society members
1999 Joined the Anthroposophical Society of North America
2002 Joined the Whitsun Initiative of the American Anthroposophical Society

Publications

1997 Pacifica Journal, "Finding Our Place in the Pacific:
Building the Picture Together"
1997 Twenty-five Plays for Waldorf Teachers, "The Girl Who Fell
From The Sky" An Incan Legend
2000-02 Pine Hill newsletter, "Wind in the Pines" ongoing articles